DAN MORALES
ATTORNEY GENERAL

February 6, 1998

Captain Robert Taylor
Amarillo Police Department
200 S.E. 3rd Avenue
Amarillo, Texas 79101-1514

OR98-0381

Dear Captain Taylor:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Texas Open Records Act, chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 113208.

The Amarillo Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specific offense report. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108 of the Government Code provides in part:

(a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from [required public disclosure] if:

(1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime;

(c) This section does not except from the requirements of Section 552.021 information that is basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime

You inform this office that the requested report concerns a case which is still under investigation. Because the requested information relates to a pending criminal investigation, we agree that the release of the requested information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime and thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to these records.

We note, however, that "basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime" is not excepted from required public disclosure. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information is the type of information that is considered to be front page offense report information even if this information is not actually located on the front page of the offense report. See generally Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976); Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976). Therefore, we conclude that, except for the front page information, the department may withhold the requested information from disclosure under section 552.108(a)(1). Although section 552.108 authorizes you to withhold the remaining requested information from disclosure, you may choose to release all or part of the information at issue that is not otherwise confidential by law. See Gov't Code § 552.007.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied on as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have any questions regarding this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Vickie Prehoditch
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
